4 – Italian Academic System/Grading system and CFU

Italian Academic system

For years Italian universities have been taking part in the Bologna Process. It organizes university studies in 3 cycles:

1. Bachelor (first level, 3 years)
2. Master course (second level, 2 years)
3. PhD (third level, 3 years).

Courses at the University of Catanzaro consist of lessons with Professors, but also tutorials, workshops, seminars.

Grading System and CFU

Examinations (written or oral) are graded according to a scale ranging from 0 to 30, with 18 as a pass mark. A "cum laude" may be added to the highest grade (30 e lode) as a mention of special distinction. University of Catanzaro adopts the system of credits (CFU). Each CFU corresponds to 25 hours of commitment to student comprehensive of educational, personal study or other individual learning activities. Students acquire the CFU by passing the exam or the final test. The student must achieve 60 credits for year. The University releases, as a supplement to the diploma for each degree obtained, a certificate stating the main references to the curriculum followed by the student, even in English.

5 – Course/ Course Catalogue

The University of Catanzaro offers a wide variety of disciplinary and interdisciplinary teachings organized in following Didactic Structures:

School of Medicine and Surgery

School of Pharmacy

Department of Law, Economic and Sociology Sciences

Link of Didactic Structures:

<http://web.unicz.it/it/page/strutture-didattiche>

You can find the information concerning Course Catalogue/Offerta formativa

Link <http://web.unicz.it/it/page/offerta-formativa>

And to Link <http://web.unicz.it/it/page/bacheca-didattica>

For more detailed information concerning didactic aspects, you can contact also the Didactic Offices indicated in the previous paragraph 3.

The Course Catalogue (or Offerta Formativa) contains all courses offered at the University of Catanzaro and is available online.

The course catalogue lists details for each course such as units for semester, amount of CFU, language of instruction etc. in the respective course descriptions.

Once you have chosen your field of study, all the courses are listed structured by study cycle and modules. If you click on a certain course you will be directed to the detailed course description with information on the course's programme as well as the link to the course registration.

Attention: page on web-site is updated

Please note, that as an exchange student you have to select courses in the field of study that you have been nominated for. In case you would also like to attend courses outside your nominated field of study, please discuss this with the Departmental coordinator of the other field of study before your arrival in Catanzaro. However, permission to participate in courses from other fields of study cannot be guaranteed beforehand

The course catalogue for the upcoming semester will be available online approximately in August (I semester) and January (II semester). It will, however, still be updated and new courses can still be added until the beginning of the semester. If you need to know what kind of courses are offered in your field of study in order to fill your Learning Agreement before the new course catalogue is published, please use the one of the previous winter or summer semester, which will give you an idea of the course offer. Please keep in mind, however, that not all courses are offered every year/semester.

Accademic year is divided into two semesters

I SEMESTER: from September – to February (courses and exams)

II SEMESTER: from February – to July (courses and exams)

The starting and finishing dates will vary in the different field of study.

It is therefore advisable to periodically check the university's website, in the area dedicated to the field of study of interest, for more detailed information on the schedule of the didactic activities, on the timetable of the lessons, on the examination sessions and on Programs of the courses..

Please contact Departmental Coordinator or Didactics Office, to the contacts indicated in the previous paragraph 3 for any further questions regarding the course offer and didactic questions.

Course usually starts at the beginning of/in mid-September for the I semester and at the beginning/in the mid of February for the II semester.

Erasmus students will still have to finish their mobility period by September 30th.

Stay abroad to conduct research/ to conduct research for your thesis

In case you are going to come to the University of Catanzaro for research purposes (for your thesis) and would also like to have additional support beside your independent research, please discuss this matter with your Departmental coordinator at the University of Catanzaro at your earliest convenience.

According to the curricula of the University of Catanzaro, no CFU credits are awarded for pure research activities for bachelor, master or PhD theses or other scientific papers.

During their stay at the University of Catanzaro, exchange students can only obtain CFU credits for completed courses and exams.

Therefore it is not possible to sign CFU credits for research activities on the Learning Agreement.
